WELCOME TO OUR
First Year Journal

Happy Birthday to us babyyyyyyyy!!!!🎉
🎉❤️❤️❤️❤️ This past year has been a beautiful journey filled with love and joy and I'm so grateful for every day we've spent together. I figured this journal would be a great way to relive our year so here's to celebrating us today and all the amazing adventures we had and to bring us look forward to all that lie ahead of us. May God be with us in this second year, may we continue to deepen our love and our joy together. I love you babe ❤️ and I hope you will be satisfied and happy with this journal because I put all my time and love into it. Cheers to many more years together till oo!!!! ❤️

Everytime I remember this day, my heart is full with happiness. I would have never imagined that you were going to do that. Especially since it wasn't planned for me to come to your place. I remember, it was very hard on you; you were so sad, so I felt the need to come and see you 😊.

Making you happy is my goal, baby, and that day I just wanted to see a genuine smile on your face. It happened, you were feeling all kinds of emotions, but despite that, your face lit up, and at that very moment, I knew I was your source of joy, and I promised myself I would never leave you and would do my best to keep that smile on your face. Then came that fameux moment when out of nowhere you asked me if I wanted to marry you 💍. I don't know if you really thought it through or if you did it on a whim, but all I know is that when you truly love someone, nothing is calculated. I could see a future with you, babe, and you looked so sincere when you were asking. Saying yes was effortless because my heart was already yours ❤️.

We quickly understood that we wouldn't see each other all the time, so we started creating our memories during our calls. As time went on, we became more and more intimate, we were completely at ease with each other, and it even showed during our conversations. The only thing I regret is not taking more pictures of the two of us. Un petit hommage to the photos and videos that we had to delete 😭😭. Every moment we shared felt very special, and I keep them in my heart ❤️.

Looking back on this past year, I can see how much we've grown together. I cherish the way we can talk about anything. I also appreciate how we've balanced ourselves to make time for each other and how you love to include me in your work life. I believe that as we grow together, our bond can only strengthens 😊.

One of the things I love most about our relationship is the mood. I'm appaisée dans la relation( sorry i don't know how to say that in english) 😊. It is funny how you think you're funny but babe.... But I love it anyway, it makes me feel free and helps me to open up. I'll never forget some of the argument we had but they are nothing compared to all those special moments we've shared. Those moments may seem small, but they're the ones that make our relationship so strong. The most important thing is that we've had our fair share of ups and downs, but through it all, we've stuck together. I'm so proud of us and the love we share. Our relationship is built on trust, respect, and communication, and I know that's what makes it so strong and I hope it'll continue to stay that way. I love you, now and forever! ❤️

I love you deeply baby! Happy anniversary, my love! Bon je ne sais plus quoi écrire 😊. Je vais mettre des coeurs. Bye bbyye chéri ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
